OVERVIEW

Kedarkantha trek is a winters trek through the remote forests covered with pine, maple, and Rhododendron trees in the state of Uttarakhand.

It starts at Sankri a remote village around 200 kms from Dehradun.

It is most sought after winter treks because of the landscape and majorly for snow which makes it a delight for trekkers.

At 12500ft the Kedarkantha trek offers you the best setting for a winter trek with some amazing view of the mountain peaks and pine and maple trees in the surrounding and walking on snow covered trails.

This five-day trek is a perfect trek for all especially for beginners who love the winters and snow.
